

OPSENS' JAPANESE PARTNER ZEON MEDICAL PROCEEDS WITH CONVERSION OF US$2 MILLION DEBENTURE

Quebec City, Quebec, November 27, 2017 - Opsens Inc. ("Opsens" or the "Company") (TSX:OPS) (OTCQX:OPSSF) is pleased to announce the conversion of the US$2 million debenture held by Zeon Medical Inc. ("Zeon Medical"), Opsens' Japanese partner.

Zeon Medical has been a client of Opsens since 2004. In 2012, Opsens granted Zeon Medical the exclusive distribution rights for its products designed to measure Fractional Flow Reserve ("FFR") in Japan, Korea and Taiwan.

Today, Opsens announced that the aggregate principal amount under the debenture and the accrued interest had been fully converted into common shares of the Company.

Dr. Noboru Yanagida, President of Zeon Medical, said: "we are delighted to become a shareholder of Opsens. We appreciate the business partnership we have developed and expect to continue to grow this relationship for the benefit of our two companies."

"We are pleased to see our longtime partner, Zeon Medical, become a shareholder in our Company. The trust that has developed between our two companies, over more than ten years of cooperation, has contributed to the decision to convert the debenture into shares of Opsens," concluded Mr. Louis Laflamme, President and CEO of Opsens.
