

BOARD OF DIRECTOR'S CHARTER

ADOPTED BY THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS ON JULY 11, 2018

BOARD OF DIRECTOR'S CHARTER

I. INTRODUCTION

This Charter is intended to identify the specific responsibilities of the Board of Directors (the “Board”) of OPSENS INC. (the “Corporation”) and thereby to enhance coordination and communication between the Board and management of the Corporation.

II. BOARD STRUCTURE

1. COMPOSITION OF THE BOARD

A majority of directors comprising the Board must qualify as independent. As a general objective, the Board will ensure itself that it is composed of directors with diverse backgrounds and personal characteristics and traits as well as competencies and expertise that add value to the Corporation and that each director will serve the Board to best discharges its responsibilities.

2. ÉLECTION AND APPOINTMENT OF DIRECTORS

Nominees for directors are initially considered and recommended by the Nomination Committee, approved by the entire Board and elected annually by the shareholders of the Corporation

III. OPERATION OF THE BOARD

1. CHAIR OF THE BOARD

The Board shall appoint annually a chair from the independent members of the Board

The Chair of the Board is charged with the responsibility of overseeing the efficient operation of the Board and its committees and ensuring that the Board's agenda will enable it to successfully carry out its duties. The principal duties of the Chair shall be set out in the position description developed by the Board and shall include running the affairs of the Board efficiently and in accordance with corporate governance principles and properly evaluating the effectiveness of the committee structures and the quality of management's work that is presented in support of the decision-making process of the Board. The Chair may also serve as a member of a committee of the Board.

2. SECRETARY OF COMMITTEE

The Chair of the Board shall designate from time to time a person who may, but need not be, a director, to be secretary of the Board. The secretary shall keep minutes of the meetings of the Board and circulate them to the Board.

3. REGULAR MEETINGS

Regularly scheduled meetings of the Board at which non-independent directors and members of management are not in attendance shall be held at such time or times as the Board or the Chair of the Board may determine to discuss matters of interest.

4. SPECIAL MEETINGS

Special meetings of the Board may be called by the order of the Chair or by the President and Chief Executive Officer or any two directors.

5. QUORUM

A majority of the directors present in person or by means of telephone or other telecommunication device that permits all persons participating in the meeting to speak to each other shall constitute a quorum.

6. AGENDA

The CEO and the Chair shall develop and set the Board's agenda in consultation with the other directors and the secretary. The agenda and information concerning the business to be conducted at the Board meetings shall, to the extent practical, be communicated to the directors sufficiently in advance of each meeting to permit meaningful review. Each Board meeting agenda shall include a period of discussion between directors in the absence of management and non-independent directors.

7. DELEGATION

The Board shall have the power to delegate certain of its responsibilities to committees of the Board, as it considers appropriate. The responsibilities of those committees will be as set forth in their Charters, as amended from time to time. In addition, the Board may appoint ad hoc committees as may be needed from time to time to address other issues. The Board shall develop a position description for the chairs of the committees.

8. OUTSIDE CONSULTANTS OR ADVISORS

At the Corporation's expense, the Board and its committees may retain, when they consider it necessary or desirable, outside consultants or advisors to advise the Board or the committees independently on any matter. The Board and its committees shall have the sole authority to retain and terminate any such consultants or advisors, including sole authority to review a consultant's or advisor's fees and other retention terms. The Board has determined that any director who wishes to engage an outside advisor at the expense of the Corporation may do so if he or she first obtains authorization of the Chair.

IV. DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

1. PRIMARY RESPONSIBILITY AND PLENARY AUTHORITY

The Board is responsible for the stewardship of the Corporation including responsibility for satisfying itself as to the integrity of the President and Chief Executive Officer and other executive officers and that the President and Chief Executive Officer and other executive officers create a culture of integrity throughout the Corporation. The primary responsibility of the Board is to supervise the management of the Corporation so as to foster the long-term success of the Corporation consistent with the Board's responsibility to the shareholders to maximize shareholder value. The Board has plenary power. Any responsibility not delegated to management or a committee of the Board remains with the Board.

2. OPERATIONS OF THE BOARD

The Board operates by delegating certain of its authority, including spending authorizations, to management and by reserving certain powers to itself. The general legal obligations of the Board are described in detail under Section 12 of this Part IV. Subject to these legal obligations and to the Articles and By-laws of the Corporation, the Board retains the responsibility for managing its own affairs, including:

- Planning its composition and size;
- Selecting its Chair;
- nominating candidates for election to the Board upon the recommendation of the Nomination Committee;
- determining whether each director is an independent director;
- appointing committees of the Board and membership of directors thereon and approving their respective mandates and the limits of authority delegated to each committee;
- together with the Human Resources and Compensation Committee and the Nomination Committee, determining director compensation;
- assessing, through the Nomination Committee, the effectiveness of the Board, its committees and its directors in fulfilling their responsibilities; and
- establishing, through the Nomination Committee, an appropriate system of corporate governance including guidelines and practices to ensure the Board functions independently of management.

3. ESTABLISHMENT AND REVIEW OF BOARD MEMBER CHARACTERISTICS

Prior to nominating or appointing individuals as directors, the Board shall:

- together with the Board Chair, monitor the size and composition of the Board and its committees to ensure effective decision-making;

- consider the appropriate skills and competencies required of the Board as a whole, taking into consideration the Board's short-term needs and long-term succession plans and assess what competencies and skills each existing director possesses; and
- develop, and annually update, a long-term plan for the Board's composition that takes into consideration the characteristics of independence, age, skills, experience and availability of service to the Corporation of its members, as well as the opportunities, risks and strategic direction of the Corporation.

In carrying out each of these functions, the Board should consider the advice and input of the Nomination Committee.

4. MANAGEMENT AND HUMAN RESOURCES

Upon the recommendations of the Nomination Committee, the Board has the responsibility to:

- appoint the President and Chief Executive Officer, and provide advice and counsel to the President and Chief Executive Officer in the execution of his/her duties;
- develop the position description for the President and Chief Executive Officer and develop or approve the corporate goals and objectives he/she is responsible for meeting;
- evaluate the President and Chief Executive Officer's performance at least annually against agreed upon written objectives and determine and approve the President's and Chief Executive Officer's compensation level based on this evaluation;
- approve a comprehensive statement of compensation philosophy, strategy and principles for the Corporation's executives; and
- approve certain decisions relating to senior management, including the:
 - Appointment and discharge of executive officers;
 - compensation and benefits for executive officers;
 - employment, consulting, retirement and severance agreements, and other special arrangements proposed for executive officers; and
 - annual corporate and business unit performance objectives utilized in determining incentive compensation or other awards to officers.

5. STRATEGY AND PLANS

The Board has the responsibility to:

- adopt a strategic planning process and participate with management in the development of, and ultimately approve on at least an annual basis, the Corporation's strategic plan which takes into account, among other things, the future trends, opportunities and risks of the business over a three to five-year horizon;

- approve annual capital and operating budgets that support the Corporation's ability to meet its strategic objectives and operating plans;
- approve the entering into, or withdrawing from, lines of business that are, or are likely to be, material to the Corporation;
- approve financial and operating objectives used in determining compensation if they are different from the strategic, capital or operating plans referred to above;
- approve material divestitures and acquisitions;
- monitor the Corporation's progress towards its strategic objectives, and revise and alter its direction through management in light of changing circumstances; and
- review recent developments that may affect the Corporation's strategy and advise management on emerging trends and issues.

6. FINANCIAL AND CORPORATE ISSUES

The Board has the responsibility to:

- Take reasonable steps to ensure, through the Audit Committee, the integrity and effectiveness of the Corporation's internal controls and management information systems, including the evaluation and assessment of information provided by management and others (e.g., internal and external auditors) about the integrity and effectiveness of the Corporation's internal controls and management information systems;
- review operating and financial performance relative to budgets and objectives;
- approve annual financial statements and quarterly financial results and approve their release by management;
- declare dividends;
- approve financings, changes in authorized capital, issue and repurchase of shares, issue of debt securities, listing of shares and other securities, issue of commercial paper and related prospectuses and trust indentures;
- approve appointment of external auditors and approve auditors' fees upon the recommendation of the Audit Committee;
- approve banking resolutions and significant changes in banking relationships;
- review and consider for approval all amendments or departures proposed by management from established strategy, capital and operating budgets or matters of policy which diverge from the ordinary course of business;
- approve significant contracts, transactions and other arrangements or commitments that may be expected to have a material impact on the Corporation; and

- approve the commencement or settlement of litigation that may be expected to have a material impact on the Corporation.

7. BUSINESS AND RISK MANAGEMENT

The Board has the responsibility to:

- Identify the principal risks of the Corporation's business and ensure that management implements appropriate systems to manage these risks, with a proper balance between risks and returns; and to monitor risks on an ongoing basis;
- review coverage, deductibles and key issues regarding corporate insurance policies; and
- review compliance with legislative and regulatory requirements.

8. POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

The Board has the responsibility to:

- Develop the Corporation's system of an overall approach to corporate governance;
- review compliance with the significant policies and procedures by which the Corporation is operated and approve any waivers of the practice for officers and directors;
- ensure that management operates at all times within applicable laws and regulations; and
- review significant new corporate policies or material amendments to existing policies.

9. DIRECTOR ORIENTATION AND EDUCATION

All new directors should understand the nature and operation of the Corporation's business and as such, management will provide new directors with a general information record on the Corporation, the opportunity to meet with Executive Management and operational personnel and the opportunity to visit the Corporation's facilities.

The Board shall undertake or arrange for such continuing director education activities and programs as it deems advisable in order to maintain or enhance their skills and abilities as directors, as well as to ensure that their knowledge and understanding of the Corporation's business remains current.

10. COMPLIANCE REPORTING AND CORPORATE COMMUNICATIONS

The Board has the responsibility to:

- Ensure that the Corporation has in place effective communication processes with shareholders and other stakeholders and with financial, regulatory and other institutions and agencies;

- ensure that the Corporation has in place effective measures for receiving feedback from security holders such as establishing a process to permit security holders to directly contact the independent directors;
- approve interaction with shareholders on all items requiring shareholder approval;
- approve the content of the Corporation's major communications to shareholders and the investing public, including the quarterly reports, Annual Report, Management's Report, Management Proxy Circular, Annual Information Form and any prospectuses that may be issued, and any significant information respecting the Corporation contained in any documents incorporated by reference in any such documents;
- take reasonable steps to ensure that the financial performance of the Corporation is accurately and fairly reported to shareholders, other security holders and regulators on a timely and regular basis, and in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles;
- ensure the timely reporting of any other developments that have a material impact on the Corporation; and
- report annually to shareholders on the Board's stewardship for the preceding year (the Annual Report).

11. GENERAL LEGAL OBLIGATIONS

The Board has the responsibility to:

- ensure that management meets all legal requirements, and properly prepares, approves and maintains documents and records;
- approve changes in the By-laws and Articles of Incorporation, matters requiring shareholder approval and agendas for shareholder meetings; and
- approve the Corporation's legal structure.

12. EXPECTATIONS AND RESPONSIBILITIES OF DIRECTORS

Directors oversee the management of the business and affairs of the Corporation.

Directors must attend all Board and relevant committee meetings; read all Board and committee materials received in advance of meetings; discuss concerns and seek appropriate information directly from management as needed; seek advice from independent advisors (at the Corporation's expense with the prior authorization of the Chair) as deemed necessary, and participate actively, freely and openly in all meetings and discussions.

Fiduciary Duty and Confidentiality

When exercising their powers and discharging their duties, directors must act with honesty and loyalty in the interests of the Corporation. Directors are thus fiduciaries vis-a-vis the Corporation and, as such, they must advance the interests of the Corporation in an impartial and disinterested manner. In particular, directors must not allow personal or business interests to conflict with the interests of the Corporation. Directors must not use their position, and information and knowledge derived from their position, for their personal gain or advantage. Directors are also subject to a duty of confidence regarding the affairs of the Corporation. Directors should not disclose or provide to others access to confidential information about the Corporation.

Standard of Care

When exercising their powers and discharging their duties, directors must exercise the care, diligence and skill that a reasonably prudent person would exercise in comparable circumstances. This standard requires directors to devote the necessary time and attention to the affairs of the Corporation and its subsidiaries, make necessary enquiries of management and others so as to make informed decisions, and make use of their education and experience.

Position Qualifications

Each director must:

- Be an individual of at least 18 years of age, of sound mind, and not have the status of a bankrupt. A majority of the directors must be independent;
- have relevant and practical business experience; have an understanding of the strategic planning process; have an understanding of human resource development, and have such competencies as determined by the Nomination Committee from time to time;
- have a high degree of personal and professional integrity and operate within the ethical framework set out in the Corporation's Code of Ethics; and
- have time available to adequately perform duties and responsibilities as a Board member and not be involved in activities which conflict with the Corporation's business.

Directors are elected annually by the shareholders. The Nomination Committee has the responsibility to recommend to the Board who will stand each year for election or re-election by the shareholders.

13. EVALUATION OF THE BOARD

Regularly, the Board and its members will assess the effectiveness of the Board and its committees, including the operation of the Board, the Board structure, the adequacy of information provided to directors and the effectiveness of the Chair in managing the meetings of the Board and the strategic direction of the Corporation. Such assessments shall consider the charter of the Board and its committees.

The Board or the Nomination Committee shall also assess, on a regular basis, the performance and contribution of each director on a variety of topics including, strategic insight, participation and accountability, in order to provide them with constructive feedback to help them improve their performance. In making its assessment, the Board or the Nomination Committee shall consider the applicable position description, as well as the competencies and skills each individual director is expected to bring to the Board. The Board or the Nomination Committee will share with the committees responsible for corporate behaviour and governance matters the results of this evaluation and discussion.

14. REVIEW OF BOARD CHARTER

The Board shall assess the adequacy of this Charter annually and shall make any changes deemed necessary or appropriate.

15. NON-EXHAUSTIVE LIST

The foregoing list of duties is not exhaustive, and the Board may, in addition, perform such other functions as may be necessary or appropriate in the circumstances for the performance of its responsibilities.
